No. 2937.

At a Marine Court assembled on Tuesday, the 7th day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, under Act No. XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Acting Mate Pilot B. Bensley was tried on the following charge:

Charge.—For negligence, ignorance or unskillfulness in the performance of his duty when in Pilotage charge of the French Ship Edouard, whereby in working down the Randerallish Channel during the afternoon of the Twenty-first day of the month of May, 1853, he ran that ship foul of the Lower Channel Creek Buoy, which tore the said Ship Edouard's rudder from the stern post, rendering the vessel unmanageable, and causing her to leak so seriously that it became necessary to beach and abandon her as a total wreck near Mud Point, upon the 23rd of May aforesaid.

By order, &c.,

(Sd.) H. Howe,
Secretary.

Fort William, the 2nd June, 1853.

Finding.—The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence brought forward in support of the prosecution, together with that adduced upon the defence, is of opinion, that Mr. Acting Mate Pilot Benjamin Bensley is "not guilty" of the charge preferred against him—and do therefore fully acquit him, the said Mr. Acting Mate Pilot Benjamin Bensley, of all and every part of the said charge.

(Sd.) H. Pinnerington,
President.

(Sd.) Thos. Hill,
Judge Advocate.

2. The Proceedings of the trial, having been submitted to Government, the Most Noble the Governor of Bengal has been pleased to approve of the Finding of the Court, and the Master Attendant has been requested to release Mr. Acting Mate Pilot B. Bensley from arrest, and to allow him to return to his duty.

Provided that no payment shall be made to the Commander of any vessel on account of the delivery of any letter or packet unless the claim of such commander shall be preferred before the vessel leaves the place at which the letter or packet was delivered, or before the expiration of two months from the date of the arrival of such vessel.

XLIII. The Commander of every vessel leaving any place in the said territories by sea, shall receive on board of such vessel every letter and packet which he shall be required so to receive by any Officer of the Post Office, and shall give a receipt for such letters or packets. I. All the Rules, Ordinances and Regulations that have heretofore been passed in the Settlement of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca, by the Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions assembled, are hereby repealed.

II. If any person within the said Settlement, having sufficient means or employment, shall not duly maintain his wife or his legitimate or illegitimate children, and shall be thereof convicted before a Justice of the Peace, upon his own confession, or the oath of one or more credible witnesses, the said Justice may make an order upon such person for the maintenance of such wife and children, or any of them, at such monthly rate as to the Justice seems reasonable, and upon non-compliance with the said order for any one month, or longer period, any Justice, by warrant under his hand and seal, may commit the person so convicted, to the common jail of the station without labor, or to the house of correction to hard labor, for any time not exceeding two calendar months.

III. Every person who shall be brought before a Justice of the Peace, charged with having in his possession, or in his premises with his knowledge, or with conveying in any manner, anything which may be reasonably suspected of being stolen, or unlawfully obtained, and who shall not give an account to the satisfaction of such Justice how he came by the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before such Justice, should be liable to a penalty, not exceeding one hundred rupees, or, in the discretion of the said Justice, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any time, not exceeding three calendar months.

IV. When any person shall be brought before a Justice of the Peace, charged with having in his possession, or in his premises with his knowledge, or with conveying anything stolen or unlawfully obtained, and shall declare that he received the same from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent or servant to convey the same for some other person, such Justice shall cause every such person, and also, if necessary, every former and pretended purchaser, or other person through whose possession the same shall have passed, to be brought before him and examined, and shall examine witnesses upon oath touching the same; and if it shall appear to such Justice that any person shall have had possession of such thing, and had reasonable cause to believe the same to have been stolen, or unlawfully obtained, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding one hundred rupees, or, in the discretion of the Justice, may be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any time not exceeding three calendar months. Every such person shall be deemed to have had possession of such thing at the time and place when and where the same shall have been found or seized, and the possession of a carrier, agent or servant, shall be deemed to be the possession of the person who shall have employed such carrier, agent or servant to keep or convey the same.

Justice of the Peace, that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that anything stolen, or unlawfully obtained, is concealed, or lodged, in any dwelling-house, building or other place, such Justice, by special warrant under his hand, directed to any police officer or constable, may cause such dwelling-house, building or other place to be entered and searched at any time of the day, or by night, if power for that purpose be given by such warrant, and the said Justice, if it shall appear to him necessary, may empower such police officer, or constable, with such assistance as may be found necessary (such constable having previously made known his authority), to use force for the effecting of such entry, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise; and if upon search thereupon made any such thing shall be found, then to convey the same before a Justice, or to guard the same on the spot, until the offenders are taken before a Justice, or otherwise dispose thereof in some place of safety, and moreover to take into custody, and carry before the said Justice every person found in such house or place, who shall appear to have been privy to the deposit of any such thing, knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect the same to have been stolen, or otherwise unlawfully obtained.

VI. If information shall be given to any superintendent or head constable, belonging to the police, that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that any stolen property is concealed, or lodged in any dwelling-house or other place, and the said superintendent, or head constable, shall have good grounds for believing that, by reason of the delay in obtaining a search warrant, the property is likely to be removed, the said superintendent, or head constable, in virtue of his office, may search for specific articles alleged to have been stolen in the houses and places specified; provided always that a list of the articles stolen, or missing, be delivered and taken down in writing, with a declaration stating that the robbery has been committed, and that the informant has good ground to believe that the property is deposited in such house or place; and provided further, that the person who lost the goods, or his representative, accompany the officer in the search.

IX. Every person who is accessory before or after the fact, to any felony, which is punishable on summary conviction before any Justice, is liable
